Confessions of a Gender Defender : A Psychologist's Reflections on Life Among the Transgendered

by Randi Ettner, Ph.D.

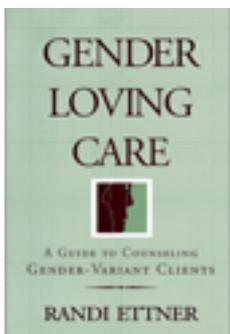

This is a firsthand look at the fascinating and controversial phenomenon of transexualism- men who want to be women and women who want to be men. Gender is the most misunderstood topic of our time. The patients introduced in this book all fight quiet battles- at home and in the workplace- with what has been called the "uninvited dilemma" of being born into the wrong body. These intimate and engaging stories directly address this fascinating and controversial phenomenon.

Gender Identity Disorder & Psychosexual Problems in Childhood & Adolescence

Gender Loving Care: A Guide to Counselling Gender-Variant Clients

by Randi Ettner

Guidance for counselors working with transsexuals: men who want to be women, and women who want to be men. While transexualism has always been part of the human experience, only recently have people "trapped in the wrong body" sought psychological care in large numbers. This book provides background about this controversial condition, enabling clinicians to help people undergoing gender transition as they deal with hormonal treatments, legal dilemmas, surgical options, family destabilization, and work-related issues.
