Terms and conditions/privacy

The information you supply will be used to compile an entry for your publication in Publications New Zealand (New Zealand National Bibliography). We also use the entry for the bibliographic record in the National Library catalogue, which is subsequently uploaded to other catalogues available for use by libraries and users in New Zealand and overseas. As a result of your entry, you may receive orders from libraries and booksellers.

The information may also be given to the Library of Congress for the Name Authority Cooperative Program (NACO). It will then be distributed to other NACO participants and as a result such information may appear in publicised machine-readable or printed records in library catalogues throughout the world.

Please advise if you do not want any personal or contact details to be used. You have a right to access and correct any personal information we may hold – please refer to our privacy policy at <http://natlib.govt.nz/about-this-site/copyright-and-privacy> or request a physical copy from us.
